

😊 Fun Seeker 😊

What did I used to find fun, but haven't done lately?
What have I been meaning to try, but haven't yet?
What would I do if time and money were no object?
Is there a smaller, doable version of the above I could do now?
Which hobbies would I love to resume / do more often / start new?
If I could take a class (online or in person), what would I like to learn more about or learn how to do?
Which concerts / plays / exhibitions would I love to see?	Which publications / websites show local listings of events and things to do in my area?
Who could I invite for coffee / lunch / dinner?	What kind of volunteering / charity event could I get involved in?

Now circle any ideas above you particularly like. Take control of your own FUN and start taking ACTION!
